HARMONICS: AN ALTERNATIVE VIEW

The harmonic chart is not a substitute for the natal chart; neither is it separate from the natal chart. PRE-NATAL EPOCH

The Pre-Natal Epoch, originally known as the Trutine of Hermes is based on the relationship between a normal period of gestation (approximately nine months) and the moment of birth, based on the Moon and the lunar cycle. This establishes a connection between the chart for the moment of conception and the birth chart.

ASTRO*CATO*GRAPHY & RELOCATION: MOVING PEOPLE AROUND THE PLANET

Place is an important factor because our sense of place gives us a sense of belonging and security. Conversely, as we move around the planet, some places are more daunting while others are welcoming. Our relationship to place can often be the difference between success and ineffectiveness and this workshop will explore what in the birth chart comes to prominence as a consequence of moving from one place to another.

PRICE: $60.00
DATE: SATURDAY 28 JULY 2018
TIME: 1:30PM - 5:00 PM

FAMILY PATTERNS & GROUP RELATIONSHIPS

Family is that group which the members have something in common; for a person family is that which is 'familiar'. Family is where there is a level of understanding; where we are understood and where we understand others in unspoken, unarticulated ways. Each group will have patterns which echo unconsciously and trigger both behaviours and reactions. This workshop will explore how to find these patterns and work with them.

PRICE: $60.00
DATE: SATURDAY 25 AUG 2018
TIME: 1:30PM - 5:00 PM

ASTERIODS AND THE FAMILY

The Greek goddesses have given their names and characters to the four major asteroids: Ceres, Pallas Athene, Juno and Vesta.
